

*An extract from the National Police Memorial
Roll of Honour
Providing details of the Cardiff City Police Officers who paid the ultimate price for 'doing their duty'*

*Police Constable William Perry
Died 31 December 1872, aged 36
Approached by a man he knew who without warning stabbed him dead.*

*Inspector Evelyn David Jenkins
Died 1 November 1936, aged 49
Killed while on patrol when hit by a car, which had gone out of control.*

*Special Constable Edgar Inglis
Died 2 January 1941, aged 40*

*Inspector Harry Davis
Died 26 February 1941, aged 54*

Special Constable Ivor James Scott Salisbury Died 28 August 1942, aged 48

Killed in enemy air raids off duty or duty status unknown.

*Police Constable Evan Thomas Davies
Died 11 December 1941, aged 31
Shot dead questioning two youths in possession of a machine gun.*

*Police Constable Allan Beattie
Died 13 April 1952, aged 26
Killed when struck by a car while arresting two men in the roadway.*